

STONE | TILE | ARCHITECTURAL FEATURES

Authentic. Artistic. Elegant.

Since 1967, Facings has been assisting clients build and design some of the most dynamic and comprehensive construction projects in Arizona and the United States. We create the impressive! Listed below are just a few ways Facings contributes to your team and projects:

- A company owner will take an active role in your project and work closely with you and your installers where necessary.
- Jean-Claude Canestrelli, our French born and raised artist, can assist you by designing one-of-a-kind Architectural Features™ and room designs custom tailored to your unique needs and specifications.
- Facings reads and understands blueprints and can frequently save you money by identifying areas that would have required a costly solution if found later in construction.
- We use the highest quality authentic European stones. The stones used in your project are authentic and similar to the type of stones that built Europe's oldest villas.
- Facings' European carvers are artists! The finished projects are truly works of art.
- Facings has the largest and finest selection of stone, tile, terracotta and Architectural Features™ in Arizona from which to select for your project needs.
- The best names in the industry choose Facings to display their products including Walker Zanger, Bisazza, Epro, McIntyre, Iris, Porcelanosa, Cepac, Jeffrey Court, and many others.

Our services will benefit you by:

- Elevating your project above your competitors or neighbors.
- Impressing your clients, friends or neighbors with the quality and detail of our craftsmanship.
- Providing the full use of our knowledgeable design consultants and showroom.
- Saving you time and money. Our prices were recently found to be approximately $6,000 less expensive for the same 700 square feet of Bisazza tile than the Southwest's largest distributor!
- Creating a one-of-a-kind project that cannot be duplicated.

Why do we have so much faith in our products and services? There are many reasons, but we have highlighted a few of them below:

- Kitchell Custom Homes states: "No one can do what Facings does".
- Most of our clients are repeat customers who recognize and understand the value of completing business with Facings of America and selecting the outstanding products and services we offer.
- Our products are used in the best and finest construction projects in Arizona and in the U.S.
- The most distinguished designers, homebuilders, architects and other industry related professionals including owners and representatives from our competitors use our products in their personal homes.
- Spec home builders using our products on their projects usually sell their homes prior to or at completion. Why? Because Facings takes the extra steps to ensure each client's project does not look like the competition and when compared to other projects in the area or price range, the Facings product filled home stands "head and shoulders" above all of the others!
